PRESS RELEASE

HENDERSONVILLE, NC October 6, 2020 – The Council on Aging for Henderson County announced that its two thrift stores—in Hendersonville and Etowah—are open for business and are back to normal operating hours: open for shopping on Tuesdays-Fridays 10am-4pm and Saturdays 10am-1pm; donations accepted Tuesdays-Fridays 10am-3pm and on Saturdays 10am-Noon. The Hendersonville store is located at 802 Spartanburg Highway, and the Etowah store is located at 97 Etowah Center Drive (US64 East towards Brevard). For more information go to the Council on Aging’s website at www.coahc.org. Proceeds from sales at the two thrift stores directly supports Meals on Wheels serving seniors in Henderson County.
